

MAINTAINER OPERATOR/ ELECTRICIAN

QUEENSLAND BULK HANDLING VAC # 174

Queensland Bulk Handling (QBH) is a coal handling facility located at the Port of Brisbane. QBH is part of the New Hope Group, a growing, Queensland-based ASX listed energy group with mining operations on the Darling Downs and in the Ipswich area. Development projects are also underway in Central Queensland. New Hope is committed to the management of its safety, environmental and social responsibilities.

QBH is seeking an experienced trade qualified Electrician to assist in ensuring that the plant is operating safely and reliably and to maintain the port's electrical systems as well as performing operational tasks as required.

To be successful in this role you will:

- A current Queensland Electrical Workers Board licence as an Electrical Fitter– Mechanic
- Have a proven record of safe work behaviour with an attitude that puts safety and risk management as the first step undertaken in each task
- Be self starting with a dedicated work ethic
- Have a proven record of working well as part of a multi-disciplined and skilled team, as well as the ability to work with minimal supervision.
- Have excellent problem solving ability and communication skills.
- Have experience working on PLC's, variable speed drives, instrumentation and process controllers including valves, actuators, belt weighers, density gauges, pressure transmitters, PID loop controllers and level controllers.

Experience in a coal preparation, other mineral processing or heavy industrial environment is desirable.

The current roster being offered is 4 on 4 off rotating days and nights.

A competitive remuneration package will be provided to the successful candidate. Additionally, you will be rewarded for high quality performance and provided ongoing personal and professional development opportunities through New Hope's LEAP development programme.

New Hope Group offers a work environment where your ideas are welcomed and continuous improvement is a part of our everyday business.
